

thank god for the do not call list, without i used to get bombarded with tons of phone calls, but since it was put into place...the calls stopped completely. This is one of the best things the goverment ever put into place. It is ridiculos to have it taken away after it has worked so well. This is an invasion of privacy therefore no one should call you without your consent.